- newsletters, product announcements, surveys;
- facilitate contests, sweepstakes, and promotions;
- protect the safety and security of our Services, business, and customers;
- fulfill legal and regulatory requirements;
- protect or exercise our legal rights;

- and as otherwise permitted by applicable law, or with your consent.

Parties to whom we disclose information.

We may disclose your information to third parties in the following ways:

- Vendors and service providers: We may share your personal information with vendors and service providers, such as securities clearinghouses and identification verification providers, who assist us in delivering specific services. These third parties are obligated to maintain the confidentiality of your personal information and are only authorized to use it to provide the services we have requested.
- Business partners: We may collaborate with business partners to administer promotions, sweepstakes, surveys, and other programs, as well as deliver targeted advertising.
- Sale or transfer of business: In the event of a sale, merger, or other transfer of our business, your personal information may be shared as part of the transaction.
- Dealing with other parties: We may disclose your information to individuals or institutions with whom you currently or intend to have interactions, such as companies in which you purchase securities through our Services.
- Affiliates: We may share your information with our affiliates, including those located outside the United States, to enhance our ability to provide the Services to you effectively.
- Compliance with laws and legal processes: We may disclose your information as required by applicable laws or in response to legal processes.
- Reporting and investigations: We may disclose your information to report suspicious transactions or cooperate with law enforcement agencies during investigations.
- Protection of rights and safety: We may disclose your information to protect the rights, interests, safety, and security of Light Horse Securities, Inc., our customers, or the public.
- Authorized disclosures: If you request or authorize the disclosure, we may share your information with other third parties to facilitate or enforce a transaction.
- Aggregated or de-identified information: We may aggregate or de-identify your personal information so that it no longer identifies you specifically. This anonymized information may be shared with third parties.
- These disclosures are subject to applicable laws and regulations, as well as your consent when required.

How we protect your information

We have security measures to protect information under our control from loss, misuse, unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. We maintain appropriate physical, electronic and procedural safeguards, including restricting access to personal information on a need-to-know basis, and limiting the amount and type of information available for downloading or transmittal. We also regularly conduct audits to ensure the effectiveness of our system. No security system is impenetrable, Light Horse Securities, Inc. cannot guarantee that our security measures will prevent hackers from illegally obtaining this information, or that our database and/or systems will not be subject to a cyber-attack. We have established a data breach management plan. If there is a data breach involving the personal information of our users, we will activate the data breach management plan to contain the data breach to prevent data from being further compromised and take appropriate measures to inform you, including in the form of push notifications, public announcements, or other appropriate means. You understand that there are no guaranteed security measures that are completely effective. We strongly suggest that you perform all actions in a secure internet environment and use a strong password for your account. Please contact us at support@lighthouse.io if you have reason to believe your account security has in any way been compromised. Light Horse Securities, Inc. retains your personal information for as long as necessary to accomplish the purpose for which it was collected, to meet our legal and regulatory obligations including compliance with our records retention practices, or as required or permitted by applicable laws and as permitted to meet our legitimate interests.

What information does Light Horse Securities, Inc. share with affiliates and partners?

We may share information with our affiliates if the information is required to provide the product or service you have requested or to provide you the opportunity to participate in the products or services our affiliates offer. Affiliates are defined as companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Non-affiliated companies are not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies. Joint marketing is a formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. We build partnerships, which may include joint marketing agreements, with other companies that offer products and services that might be of value to our clients. In order to ensure that these products and services meet your needs and are delivered in a manner that is useful and relevant, we may share some information with our partners and/or affiliates. This allows us and the partners and/or affiliates to better understand the offers that are most relevant and useful. We may also compare our client lists with those of our partners and affiliates to ensure they are not sending messages to you if you've elected not to be notified previously. In our strategic partnerships, we will require that it be identified that an offer is being extended because of the relationship with us. The use of your personal information is limited to the purposes identified in our relationship with the partner or affiliate. In the event that you opt to integrate your brokerage account with a third-party service for the purpose of displaying your holdings external to Light Horse, it is imperative to acknowledge that said external entity may gather pertinent information about you. It is strongly advised that you carefully review the privacy policy and terms and conditions of the aforementioned third-party entity, as they may be different from those of Light Horse. The utilization of such services is undertaken at your own discretion and risk.

How your information travels

We store your personal information on servers in the country or region that we provide our services from and you will be deemed to accept their jurisdiction over your information. Our products and Services are available across a number of jurisdictions, each of which has different data protection laws that vary in the amount of protection they provide. In all cases, we will make reasonable efforts to ensure that your personal information is adequately and equally protected. In providing our Services, your personal information may be accessed by our affiliates in jurisdictions other than where you use our services. We will not transfer any personal data relating to a natural person located in the European Economic Area, the United Kingdom, or any other jurisdiction that restricts outbound data transfer, from the country of origin without appropriate safeguards as required by applicable law and regulations. You may receive a copy of those safeguards by contacting us support@lighthouse.io

Third-party links

Some information on our website or services we offer may contain links to content maintained by third parties that we have no control over. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third parties or the content of third-party services or third-party service providers. The information practices of these third parties are not covered by this privacy policy. Please review the privacy policies of these third-party services. We urge you to read their privacy policies as well as terms and conditions of use to understand how they collect, use, and share your information.

Child privacy

It is not our intention to collect or use personal information from anyone under the age of majority. We don't knowingly collect or solicit any information from minors. In the event that we learn that we have collected personal information of minors, we'll take reasonable steps to delete that information as quickly as possible. If we are also made aware that we have collected any personal information from minors and are asked to delete such information from our databases, we will do so promptly. If you believe that we might have any information from a minor, please contact us at support@lighthouse.io.

California residents

This section provides details applicable to California residents under the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA") regarding the personal information we collect about California residents and the rights afforded to them. Subject to certain limitations and exceptions, the CCPA provides California residents the right to opt out of the sale of personal information (please note we do not sell personal information), the ability to request the details of the personal information we collect, and the option to control and delete personal information.

In accordance with the CCPA, California residents may exercise their rights under the CCPA by sending an email to support@lighthouse.io.

Please note that:

- The CCPA does not apply to nonpublic personal information collected by financial institutions such as Light Horse Securities, Inc.
- We may deny your deletion request if retaining the information is necessary for us or our service providers to provide our services to you.
- We may verify the request as well as your identity by asking you to provide information that matches information we have on file and/or your authorized agent if you designated one to act on your behalf.

In accordance with California law, Light Horse Securities, Inc. will not share information we collect about you with non-affiliates, except as allowed by law. Please refer to this privacy policy document about who we share your information with and how it is used.

Pursuant to California's "Shine the Light Act", California residents are permitted to request information about how we share certain information with third parties for their marketing use. Light Horse Securities, Inc. may disclose your personal information to our affiliates or other related third parties for their use in marketing to you. Please send an email to our support team at support@lighthouse.io to request a copy of our disclosure pursuant to California law. We will provide the required information to your email address in response. Please be advised that not all possible information sharing is covered by the "Shine the Light Act" requirements of California, and only information on covered sharing will be included in our response.

Nevada residents

We do not sell consumer covered information for monetary consideration (as defined in Chapter 603A of the Nevada Revised Statutes). However, if you are a Nevada resident, you have the right to submit a request directing us not to sell your personal information. To submit such a request, please contact us at support@lighthouse.io.

European and United Kingdom residents

If you are a resident of Europe and the United Kingdom, you have the following rights regarding your personal data: If you wish to access, correct, update or request deletion, restrict processing, object to processing, or request porting of your personal information, you can do so at any time by contacting us. You have the right to opt-out of marketing communications we send you at any time. You can exercise this right by clicking on the "unsubscribe" link in the marketing emails we send you. You can manage your account settings and email marketing preferences as set forth in the policy above. Similarly, if we have collected and processed your personal information with your consent, then you can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us. Withdrawing your consent will not affect the lawfulness of any processing we conducted prior to your withdrawal, nor will it affect processing of your personal information conducted in reliance on lawful processing grounds other than consent. Please note that if you opt-out of having your data shared with advertisers, you will still see ads, they just will not be tailored to your interests. You have the right to complain to a data protection authority about our collection and use of your personal information. For more information, please contact your local data protection authority. We respond to all requests we receive from individuals wishing to exercise their data protection rights in accordance with applicable data protection laws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right to keep any information in our archives that we deem necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes and enforce our agreements.

Indirect information gathering

The information we collect indirectly from you includes your Internet protocol (IP) address, browser type, operating system, Internet service provider (ISP), time stamps, transaction history, and location data. We may collect location data about you through your Internet Protocol (IP) address, GPS, Wi-Fi, or other methods. Should you close your account with us, we will retain your information, but only use it to comply with regulatory requirements and periodically contact you to offer you the opportunity to fund your account, reopen your account, or participate in other offers.

Cookies

We use cookies and other tracking technologies to improve your experience and understand your preferences. Cookies are small text files sent from web servers that may be stored on your computer. Cookies enable us to capture how you arrive at our site, when you return, which pages on our site you visit, and to recognize that you are already logged on when we receive a page request from your browser. We collect cookies using our website and our mobile application. We may link the information we store in cookies to personally identifiable information you submit while on our site. We will never share this information with any non-affiliated companies. Cookies do not contain any personal information or account/password information. You can adjust your browser settings to block cookies, but please note that some functions may not work properly if you choose to do so.

Privacy choices form

If you prefer that we limit disclosures of personal information about you, you may notify us via email at support@lighthouse.io that you elect to opt out of our privacy policy procedures. Please send correspondence along with your account number(s) to: support@lighthouse.io. Please indicate the following preferences:

- Limit disclosure of personal information about me to non-affiliated third parties.
- Limit the personal information about me that you share with our affiliates.
- Remove my name from your marketing lists shared with affiliates in related lines of business.

Please allow approximately 30 days from our receipt of your request for your instructions to become effective. You do not need to notify us if you have previously instructed the firm not to share information about you.

Security of your personal information

We employ physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to guard your nonpublic personal information. When you open an account with us, you are issued a unique account number, user ID, and password. It is important to maintain the secrecy of your account number, user ID, and password. We recommend not disclosing this information to anyone. We also recommend periodically changing your password.

Reviewing or changing personal information

Personal identifying information may be reviewed, changed, or corrected at any time. You are responsible for maintaining the accuracy and completeness of your personal information stored at the firm. At least once every 36 months, we will send you a letter asking you to confirm the information we have on file. If you would like to review your personal information or if you believe that any of your information is incorrect, or if you have any questions regarding your personal information, or if you have any other questions or concerns regarding this privacy policy, simply contact our office at the same contact information listed in the "Privacy Choices Form" section.

In the event the firm materially changes this Privacy Statement, the revised Privacy Statement will promptly be posted to our website. By opening an account with us, you are deemed to agree to accept posting of a revised Privacy Statement electronically on our website as actual notice to you.

Should you have any additional questions concerning our privacy policy, you may submit a written request for additional information to our Customer Service team at the same contact information listed in the "Privacy Choices Form" section.
